The Mighty C and the Magical

Ian Lightfoot

Being fifteen in New Mushroomton isn't easy for Ian Lightfoot. He struggles with confidence, fumbling for words when inviting classmates to his sixteenth birthday party. Even learning to drive is harder than Ian thought. He wishes he could be more like his father, Wilden Lightfoot, and cherishes the mementos his dad left behind. He would give anything to talk to his dad, just once....

Barley Lightfoot

barley Lightfoot is Ian's loud and loyal older brother. He knows everything about the old days, when magic filled the land and unicorns roamed the skies. Committed to preserving the past, Barley chains himself to an historic fountain to prevent it from being torn down. He is always eager to teach Ian about quests and help him find the mighty warrior inside.

Laurel Lightfoot

Hardworking and loving, Laurel is the single mother of two boys, Ian and Barley. She tries her best to boost Ian's confidence and advises Barley to think less about the past and more about his future. Laurel is determined to protect her sons and keep them out of trouble, but she also knows how to unleash her inner warrior when the situation requires it.

Guinevere

More than just a rickety old van, Guinevere is Barley's masterpiece and mighty steed—the chariot a warrior deserves.

He rebuilt her with his own hands, from the axle to the air conditioning, and painted a pegasus on one side. Full of surprises, Guinevere might occasionally run out of gas or lose a bumper, but she never lets Barley down.

To Barley Lightfoot, Quests of Yore isn't just a board game—it's an historically based role-playing scenario and a way to keep the wonder of the past alive. Quests of Yore's rules, decrees, and spells can be used by a real wizard if they practice enough to master the art of magic.

The Manticore

Part bat, part lion, and part scorpion, the Manticore runs a family-friendly restaurant that serves up fried foods and birthday parties. But the one-thousand-year-old former warrior once lived a life of adventure. Before she filled her days waiting tables and fixing broken karaoke machines, she embarked on dangerous quests. Deep down, the Manticore still lives to take risks. She just needs to be reminded of that.

Officer Colt Bronco

A New Mushroomton police officer, Colt Bronco is a centaur: half horse and half man. He adores his girlfriend, Laurel Lightfoot, but struggles to connect with her sons, Ian and Barley. Back in the day, centaurs could run seventy miles an hour, but Colt gets around in a vehicle and can't really control his graceless back half when he's in a small room.

Blazey

Not exactly the figantic and aggressive creatures that used to roam the earth, attacking wizards and warriors on quests—dragons nowadays make lovable house pets. Small, friendly, and not a fan of water, Blazey is the pet dragon of the Lightfoot family. She loves to tackle Ian to the ground and can definitely breathe fire, but only when it's time to play.

Dewdrop

Sprites used to fly around joyfully, spreading delight. Nowadays, they mostly hang out at gas stations or drive around on motorcycles. Dewdrop, the leader of the Pixie Dusters motorcycle club, doesn't like being reminded of the old days. Aggressive and tough, she is ready to confront anyone who gets in her way, even slightly.
